Grosvenor Told Why & Republicans Are Opposed to the easure.

IT IS HARDLY LIKELY TO PAY SENATE

Even If It Gets Through the Youse, Though There Is No Organiza Opposition to It.

(Special to The Post.) Washington, May 8.-The consideration a blil in toto, while attempts to smend the including Indian Territory with Okiahoma and combining New Mexico and Arizona were made by an element in which both republicans and democrats were interested. The first named amendment was defeated. An execond was pending business when the house adjourned. It will be voted down tomerrow and unless something unforescen happens the bill will be passed during the day. The democrats have been successful on prolonging the debate to such an extent as to allow those who attended the otey and Salmon funerals to return in time to vote. The general impression at this time is that the bill will not get through the senate.
